BIO

26 year-old Indie Pop artist Jenny Scara, originates from Chicago, IL. Jenny started 2024 off with her debut EP, "Love You Always" in February. The success of Jenny's latest release, "Hello, Mr. Octopus" has allowed her to skyrocket in popularity over the past two months. The first snippet of the song was released in August on her Instagram and quickly went viral. With this social media success, Jenny released a demo of the song on September 22, which quickly earned over 7200 streams in 25 days. The popularity of "Hello, Mr. Octopus" brought listeners back to Jenny's first EP, which earned nearly 2000 streams since the viral "Hello, Mr. Octopus" video was released. With this success, Jenny has been featured at prominent Chicago venues, including Reggie's and Cubby Bear, while also going on her first East Coast tour, performing at The Delancey in New York and Tin Can Bar in Philadelphia. Jenny has been able to share the stage with other great talents, such as Parijita (The Voice - Top 8 Finalist) and Bryce Bishop (152.7K monthly listeners), showcasing her star power and stage presence among more established artists. Jenny has also earned press recognition (Wavy Magazine, Buzzslayers) along with her recent performances and releases.
